

Paper 1: What-Why-How Test Corrections Rubric

5 Marks = For each question missed, there is a complete and insightful explanation as to WHAT the correct answer was, WHY it was missed (why was the question misunderstood or why was the concept misunderstood), and HOW will the concept be remembered, for all of the corrections.

4 Marks = For each question missed, there is a complete and insightful explanation as to WHAT the correct answer was, WHY it was missed (why was the question misunderstood or why was the concept misunderstood), and HOW will the concept be remembered, for all of the corrections. However one of the explanations is weak and lacking insight.

3 Marks = For each question missed, there is a complete and insightful explanation as to WHAT the correct answer was, WHY it was missed (why was the question misunderstood or why was the concept misunderstood), and HOW will the concept be remembered, for all of the corrections. However two of the explanations is weak and without insight or one of the explanations is missing (i.e. simply the answer is given for WHAT without any explanation).

2 Marks = For each question missed, there is a simplistic explanation given as to WHAT the correct answer was, WHY it was missed (why was the question misunderstood or why was the concept misunderstood), and HOW will the concept be remembered.

1 Mark = The corrections have not been made for all of the missed questions (incomplete) or at least one of the three explanations has not been attempted.
